

Here are some of the fungi that can be found at Saumarez Park. Some species can be found attached to trees, others in grassland. Sometimes you need to get up and close to the grass to spot some of the smaller species.

Bonnets
(Mycena sp.)

Coral sp.

Orange Porecap

Blusher

Milkcap sp.

Beefsteak Fungus

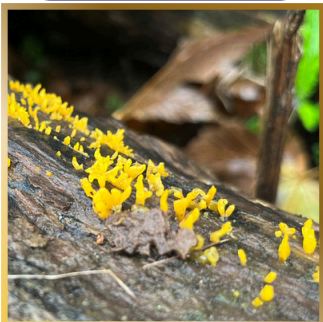

Deceiver

Smoky Bracket

Small Stagshorn

Glistening Inkcap

Lumpy Bracket

Jelly Ear

Turkeytails

Orange Peel Fungus

Weeping Widow

Sulphur Tuft

Please be aware that not all fungi can be identified down to species/common name. Some species will only be identified in the field to a family or genus level.