Nature Commission
Nature Matters

St Peter Port Fungi Spotter Sheet

Here are some of the fungi that can be found in St Peter Port. Sites to search include Beau Sejour, Cambridge Park, Les Cotils, Candie Gardens, Candie Cemetery and Brother's Cemetery. Species may be found in the grassland or attached to trees and deadwood. You may need to get up close to have a better look at identification features.

Clavulinopsis sp.

Jelly Ear

Red Cage

Oak Mazegill

Honey Fungus

Chip Cherries

Brown Rollrim

Orange Porecap

Wood Blewit

Artist Bracket

Orange Mosscap

Turkeytail

Splitgill

Giant Polypore

Peziza sp.

Panthercap

Photo credit Anneka Saunders

Please be aware that not all fungi can be identified down to species/common name. Some species will only be identified in the field to a family or genus level.