

Reservoir Fungi Spotter Sheet

Here are some of the fungi that can be found at the Reservoir. Some species can be found attached to trees, or at the bottom of trees. You may need to get up close to have a better look at identification features.

Small Stagshorn

False Chanterelle

Liver Milkcap

Russula (Brittlegill)
sp.

King Alfred's Cakes

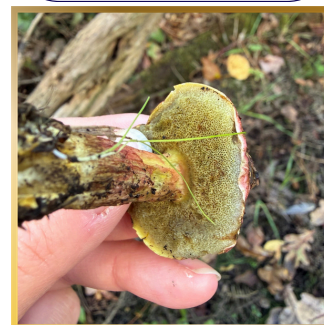

Sulphur Tuft

Glistening Inkcap

Bolete sp.

Orange Ping-pong
Bat Fungus

Chicken of the Woods

Fly Agaric

Deciever

Orange Mosscap

Wood Cauliflower

Artist's Bracket

Redlead
Roundhead

Please be aware that not all fungi can be identified down to species/common name. Some species will only be identified in the field to a family or genus level.